International Student Application Form

Attachment:

Application for Credit transfer

Application of course credit must be made in writing by submitting the Application for Credit Form. Student applicants from overseas must make the application for credit transfer prior to entry as any credit applied will affect the duration of study required and therefore will also affect the length of the required visa.

It is the student's responsibility to submit the following when applying for credits:

- certified copies or original copies of past academic transcripts indicating the course completed, year completed, grade obtained and details of the grading system;
- academic transcripts or other related academic documents not written in English must be translated in English;
- copy of the course description;
- any additional information required by the Course Coordinators;
- any additional information considered relevant by the applicant.

TWLI accepts no responsibility for obtaining the above mentioned documentation from other institutions.

Application for credit will not be considered for students who has subsequently attempted the course and received a grade of Fail.
